3. Explain two or three main points about leadership that you learned from this field experience activity?

*Your reflection should be professional in tone, should include both description and analysis, and demonstrate an understanding of leadership theory and educational leadership in practice. If you wish to include an artifact, please include a description and brief rationale for its inclusion.

*Your reflection should be written in a clear, concise essay. The length of the reflection will depend on the nature and complexity of the experience; however, it should provide a reflective analysis that demonstrates critical thinking about the experience. If there are multiple experiences that are repetitive or similar in nature, they may be combined into one reflective essay, but each should describe in terms of what was unique to that specific field experience. *These reflection forms should be typed and should demonstrate graduate level scholarship and writing.

This form should be consistent with the information in Form 10.
